

Clinical Manager Vacancy at Share – Full time or job share

With a reputation for achieving successful outcomes, Share Psychotherapy delivers therapy through a range of psychodynamic and creative therapies & modalities. Around 80% of our clients pay £15 or less per session and we therefore work at the vital intersection of psychological distress and poverty in the city.

Share offers:

- A friendly and supportive environment
- The opportunity to shape our clinical and strategic direction.
- A regular contribution to, and participation in, our CPD offer.
- Learning and development opportunities.
- Opportunity to apply as a job-share

We are looking to recruit a UKCP, BACS, NCPS, or HCPC registered practitioner, who will lead and oversee our client assessment and therapy, volunteer recruitment, as well as the support to and supervision of therapists. The Clinical Manager will take responsibility for clinical governance, risk management and safeguarding to ensure safe practice.

Share offers the opportunity to contribute to a really important cause and to work in a friendly and supportive learning environment where you will have the opportunity to hone and grow your clinical skills and managerial experience. Share is committed to providing learning and development opportunities for the incoming post-holder.

We are committed to equality of opportunity for all staff, students and volunteers. To achieve a workforce that reflects the diversity of Sheffield we value applications from all ethnic, cultural, and social backgrounds.

A full job description and person specification is available on our website:

www.sharepsychotherapy.org/jobs. This is a permanent position.
